

(April 7)

(65) the second pylon, are traces of the street and an inexplicable basin like stone.

[DRAWING]

--top of headdress of a statue of Espalut

--reconstructed pylon

All this is in debris below the foundation of the later temple 900. The headdress piece may fit on the Espalut head from 500 A.

(3) On the G. side of 800 and 900, cleared off all debris down to red gravel. No walls or indications of walls.

(4) At 1000, continued clearing in and around the "great well." The interior diameter is about 10 meters. The great gebel rises on the R. side to the top of the wall.

(5) In 900, continued clearing 509-511. In 510, frag. of a [XXX?] [DRAWING: hieroglyphs]