[DRAWING]

1. statuette of [DRAWING: hieroglyphs] headless
 2. sandstone statue Meroitic
 3. Small granite statuette of Ram-headed god.
 4. Seated sandstone statuette, nearly decayed. Meroitic.
 5. Frag. of very small standing statuette (slate)
- 6-7 Two [DRAWING] are there; one green fai., Most careful search failed to show face of no. 1. The stone in the door way was clearly later. So I moved it; found a white floor underneath about 10-15 cm below floor of ns. 1 & 2. It seems probable that No. 1 was already broken (face gone) when
