

(Feb. 18)

the surface, one of the Egyptians (Ahmed ¹¹⁴ ~~the~~ ^{the} ~~Musaid~~) with three helpers was sent to work to clear a grave or two to determine the date, type of grave, etc. This is numbered Scm. 2000. One grave was partially cleared and ~~was a~~ seems to be a miniature copy of the underground part of the Pyramids IX-XV, - small stairway leading to a chamber. Pot shards (red pol. etc., - like Gourni) and frags. of shell of shells.

⑥

In front of temple of Mut, put in several small trenches to ascertain nature of substratum. Every where the same layers, - ca 50 cm. sandy loose debris, and then a very hard packed natural (?) deposit of red sand (almost like rock).

Building
300

⑦

At trench A. building 500. Trench enlarged considerably $\rightarrow$ N and $\rightarrow$ W. and two ^{small} trenches cut through the floor (a & b) which had been cleared.