

(March 30)

(58)

and copy of the inscription. It is a bk. granit offering stone, funerary altar of Senka-Amon-seken.

Said reports small temples and rock cut tombs.⁵⁷ The tomb of Senka-amun-seken is probably here.

Friday

March 31

59th

day

of work

Mr. Young visited the excavations.

Work on (1) Temple 700, (2) Bldgs. 800 and 900, (3) space in front of 600, (4) Nuri.

(1)

Clearing back of 700 on D. side.

Finished clearing compartment of foundation deposit under GU corner. It measures 110 x 100 cm. -65 c.

[DRAWING]

Today scattered in the loose dirt as yesterday we found:

2. small bronze hoe heads

[DRAWING]

1 bronze wedge (?) L 3.6 cm model

1 " chisel L. 10.6

1 blue faience (white body) feathered cartouche with name of Atlanersa H 10. cm (in 3 pieces)

1 small pottery jar of resin [DRAWING]

misc. potsherds

⁵⁷ Not sure what he is referring to...he had previously visited Merowe Sheriq (p. 172 above) and El-Kurru (178) during this season. Could it be the tombs of Hillat el-Arab (Vincentelli 2006)?