

[Drawing]

- (1) cont. Continued removal of railway embankment and worked "N" and "E" in dirt debris. At Y in debris following objects grey granite frag. of thick walled vessel (bowl) [Drawing], inside smooth, outside rough. 4 pebbles of translucent pinkish - yellow stone with dark veining (agate?), 2 smooth, 2 broken. 6 frags. blue gl. faï, one the point of a cone or base of a pointed bot. vessel. and one frag. of a plaque with cartouche [Drawing]
- (2) Continued clearing "W" along temple wall in sand + stone debris with dark earth debris at base. At x following objects: --
Frag. of statue in black granite: -- forepaw of recumbent lion or sphinx, with part of basis bearing frag. of incised inscription. Thus:--

[Drawing]

Another small frag bl. gran. with curved surface. Part of a green paste hollow cylinder [Drawing], and a small frag. of a gr. gl. faï ring.

Received visit this morning of a local Sheikh from Kareima who came to inquire if we were properly supplied with local labor.

Dec 15th, Monday
6th day of work: --

77 locals
Have adopted the following system of identification for areas adjacent to B 500.

[Drawing]