When we got to Harima (about 4:30 P.M.), Mr. Warden showed me a telegram from Weeks. The boxes etc. were delayed by the Customs, - another mark of their inefficiency at Halfa. Mr. Warden found 300 tons extra freight lying at Harima and arranged for a special freight to leave Abu Hamed Monday night and bring our boxes, etc.

Went on board the Nile King, found Mr. Warden had telegraphed to Mr. Ritchie to have the fire lights and the boat prepared.
