At Qus, a man brought news that Mohammed (the village Hakeem) father of Ashur died last night.
So I let Ashur get off at Graft and ordered Sabir Asma to give up his vacation and come on to Cairo.
At the dish washer joined us at Keft.

Saturday
April 29

Arrived at Cairo at 7:45 having had breakfast on the train (coffee prepared by Sabir at Helhel, hot milk brought by sleeping car conductor at Wasta, and the remains of our lunch basket). Found Fady with three other of our boys waiting for us and took a taxi out to Inna Huse, bringing the anti-fur in my suit case. Found Qargan and four others waiting. Hafez brought us four donkeys and we rode up to the camp to which we reached before
