

(Feb. 4) their crops. He replied he had not the power. Said then suggested that we could dismiss the Barkal people and put men from elsewhere. Finally one of the sheikhs (Sheikh of Barkal) took Said aside and offered him a share of the profits if he would consent to use the sheikh-system. This was refused. I have today ordered Said to make out a list of our men and send it to the Omdeh with a request to name the men needed in the cultivation.
