further excavation until next winter. The job will require several weeks. However we cleared room A to the floor.

[DRAWING]

[DRAWING]

--drift dirt and stones from chapel

--third

--second fall of gebel

--first fall of gebel

--debris from 1st plunderers hole thrown [?] in or washed in on top of first fall of rock.

On the floor x', four alabaster jars [DRAWING] perhaps originally standing in SU corner (NE). X² a number of cylindrical objects (ornaments) of gilt silver (?), badly crushed by rock. (Probably dropped here by thieves). X³ in the RU corner (NW) 8-10 alabaster jars, some whole, some crushed, which appear to have stood [?] originally against the wall.
