

87
(74.20)
(81)

the bank of debris, well inside the line of the Temple (200) but has revealed no walls.

149
(87)

Trench d' is being enlarged into the excavation of Temple 700. One of the large gorges from the Py. field has been put in the spot and we have now cleared the outside of a wall which has a pit at. The S. end of the wall bears the bases of two cols. in line with the columns about the statue excavated by Mr. Budge.

⑤

The search for a dump at X meets with difficulties as traces of buildings have been encountered,

An area about

here we laid bare
the surface of the alluvial mud.

six by four meters has been found however