The col. abacus mentioned yesterday in 502 "SW"
was visible on all four sides today:
Ca. 120 x 120 x 65

[Drawing]

B In 502 III 5 another abacus, red sandstone 120 x 120 x 63
Only one face legible.

[Drawing]

On the standing col. (repaired by Gov. Jackson), the abacus in place reads: [Drawing]

[Drawing]

D Another red abacus in 502 II 4 "N" a and c as C above. b. [Drawing]

My impression is that these are all one date, the work of one shop. If these are of the date of the "S" wall (i.e. [Drawing]), the cartouches would appear to be purely decorative,
of especially Aa and c.
