It is now clear that (127) ③ Atlantea built the temple (cols. in 226 stones, black granite altar, foundation deposit); ④ Seneca or Seneca rebuilt it or restored it (Pylon inscription on face, recorded by Gailliard, confirmed by frags. in debris in front, also intrusive inscription on black granite altar); ⑤ ~~Seneca~~ Some one during the Barbed Pyramid age rebuilt the rooms 703 and 704 (evidence of masonry, reused stones, sandstone statuettes, Renn-lebed statuettes, miscellaneous small objects in 704).
