

Friday
April 21

76 ~~th~~
day
of work

Employed 118 men at Barkul on misc. cleaning jobs and 66 at Nuri filling in VIII A. and stair.

(180) / 280

Telegram from Kemp, that he returns on next boat.

I worked on 500 plan all day. Dunham on object register.

Saturday
April 22

77 ~~th~~
day
of work.

Employed 114 men at Barkul (instead of usual 200) and, about 65 at Nuri, as yesterday. Dunham and I at Barkul on maps and register.

Sunday
April 23
78~~th~~
day.

Men employed on putting house in village in order, carrying stones, etc.

Dunham and I stayed at Mesow, packing up. Repacked gold objects from Nuri VIII putting greater part in small wooden box together with bracelets from Barkul VII, to be taken down in my personal baggage. Telegram to Antik to that effect: "fragile objects" to ~~avoid~~ ^{prevent} Egypt. officials understanding.

We packed drawing material, photo. outfit, and medicines to stay in house at Mesow.

Dunham and I ran down to Palae in launch and had lunch with Governor Jackson.

Mr. Young also there