Day of rest for men.

Spent the day at Merowe. Jackson Pasha sent the Waterlily to fetch us. He showed Mrs. Reisner over the garden. I had two color pictures taken. Lunch and returned about 4 but stopped to look over the Johnson house, which I rented this morning from Mr. Warder.

Sent copy of diary to Mr. Crowfoot to be deposited with Mr. Drummond.

8th day

Went to Merowe early to superintend transfer of Griffith's stuff to the Johnson house. Col. Jackson has with the greatest kindness set a gang of men to work making a floor in two of the rooms, while washing the walls and putting the place in order.

Work on (1) X (2) XXII (3) XI (4) XIV (5) Temple 100.
