

(March 7)

(38)

double wall enclosing the tops of the hills.

[DRAWING]

A good stout high wall, stones laid as headers on edge [DRAWING] a loose, dry rubble masonry of undressed stones.

Called [Arabic letters—khush krenha??] (proverbial expression). No doubt a shelter enclosure against raids.

(1)

At Temple 700, continued clearing away bank of debris and clearing away fallen blocks.

Under the bank of debris came