

- (3) (see below)
- (4) Found stairway entrance to XIII.
- (5) [Found stairway entrance to] XIV.
- (6) Continued clearing stairway entrance to XV.

All three are of the same type.

[DRAWING]

Original filling of stairway of grey sand, probably debris from the excavation of stair and chamber dumped back. It is now almost as hard as the original sandstone. Borrowed five picks of Mr. Warder to break it up.

- (3) Continued clearing entrance to XI.

[DRAWING]

The entrance is much larger than appeared yesterday, which was x...x. This part with the drift sand filling a (hard) b (firm) described yesterday, is only the plunderer's
