

(Jan. 29) Arabi was hurt by a fall of debris in the stairway of Pyr. XI. On one side the debris was softer and the men were cutting into the hard debris. Said ordered Arabi to take the soft debris. He disobeyed and immediately after the soft debris fell on him.

Work on (1) X (2) XI (3) XII (4) XIII (5) XX and (6) Temple 100.

- (1) The supposed entrance to X proves to be a cleft in the rock. Continued trenching on south.
- (2) Clearing debris from stairway of X working along the steps. Also clearing front (S) and W. of Pyr. The pyr. appears to have been smaller than I thought (Cailliaud 26.30 m). The SW corner is now clear.
- (3) Clearing stairway of XII similar to that of XV. Plunderer's hole filled with yell. sand at deep end. Clearing front and towards XI.
- (4) finished stairway of XIII. Doorjamb cut in rock [DRAWING]. Part of mud-brick door-block still in place.
