Spent the day at Manure. Jackson Pooka sent the Watushy to fetch us. He showed Mrs. Reisma on the Garden. I had two color pictures taken. Lunch and returned about 4 but stopped to look over the Johnson house, which I visited this morning from Mr. Warden.

Sent copy of diary to Mr. Comfort to be deposited with Mr. Hammond.

Tuesday
Feb. 1.
8th day.

Went to Manure early to superintend transfer of Griffith's stuff to the Johnson house. Col. Jackson has with the greatest kindness set a gang of men to work making a floor in two of the rooms, whitewashing the walls and putting the place in order.
