In trench d' ~~part~~ (Bly 200) a well defined wall is now partly clear. Its direction is 56° W of N. The direction of Bly. 200 taken on cols. and on wall running into rock. varies from 41° to 43° W of N. Bly. 600 is 44° W of N. Bly. 500 varies from 56° to 53° W of N. In other words, the wall in d' seems to be older than 200; - perhaps contemp. with 500.

Trench c' continues through debris along surface of red stratum but with no encountering any walls.

⑧

Trench A. cleared whole end of pylon and a meter of wall of temple.
