

Jan 26]

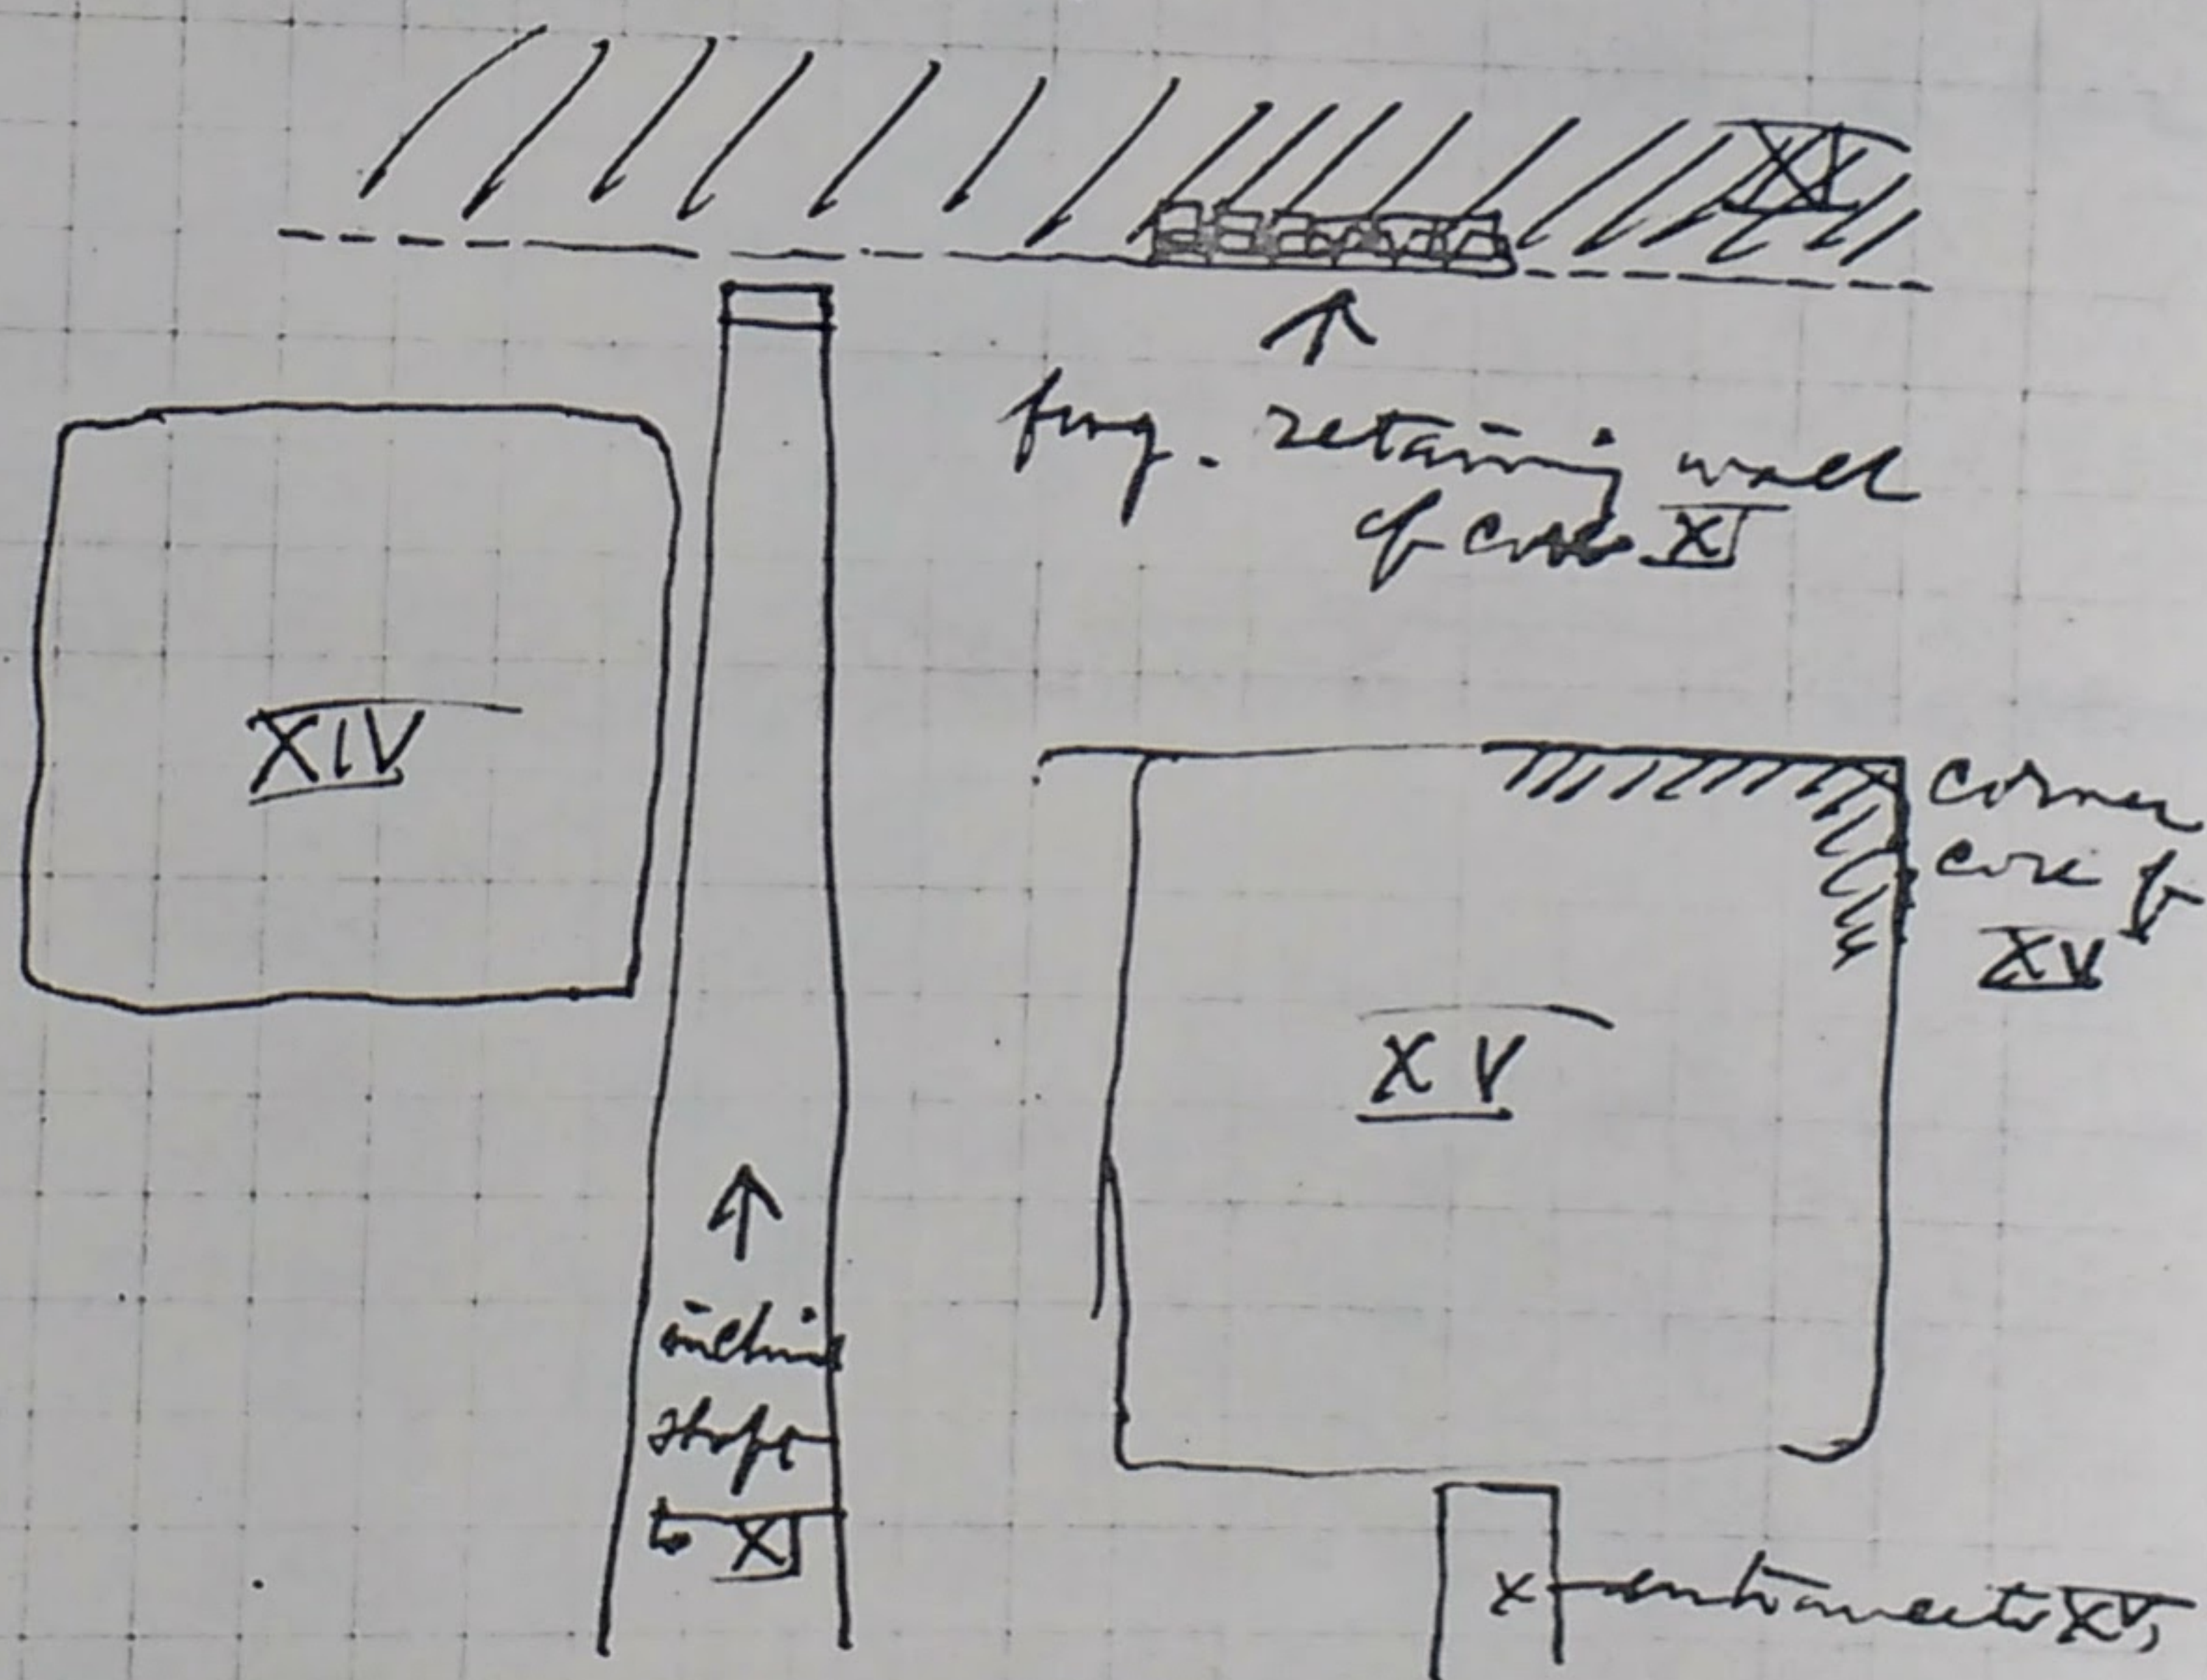

1916

42
60
59

②.

Work continued on Pp. XI. on the space between the S. face and XV.

The inclined shaft (stairway 3) leading down under XI is cut in the solid rock (sandstone) and is of typical primitive form (i.e. narrow at the deep end). The debris from XIV extends over the shaft. The shaft is filled with