As dump is too far away. Shifting group into room 101 and the room on the S. of 101.

Andal of Barkul came to complain that the works are absorbing people needed for the cultivation of the fields.
I do not yet see his little game; but I suspect that is me. In the meantime, I arranged to have a list of the men shown him to let him mark those who are needed.

It seems that the Andal and shikhs of Barkul are scheming to get a "rake-off" on the wages of the local employees. They proposed first to me and then to Said Ahmad
