Thothmes III

Thus the evidences of the XVIIIth dyn.
occupation increase.

(3) Work continued at 900, where the greater part of the groups are now engaged.

(4) At present three buildings are discernible, in chronological order as follows.

(a) Mud-brick walls, to which appear to belong certain white sandstone pavements and columns (are in place)

(b) Well built red sandstone walls.

(c) Mixed stone walls with many reused inscribed blocks.
